Saving Lucy

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Lucy. She was very beautiful. Her voice was as sweet as honey and her skin was smooth like silk. She was gentle like a lamb. There was a boy called Peter who lived beside her.

One day, a fierce dragon caught Lucy and held her tightly by its claw. "Help!" Lucy cried. She tried to escape but it was too late. The dragon flew away quickly back to its tower. Peter saw this situation and thought, "Lucy needs help. I should rescue her. Maybe I should give it a shot."

The next day, when Peter was going to the dragon's tower to save Lucy, he saw a shiny flower smiling at him. He tried to touch it. Suddenly, the flower turned into a fairy who was holding a wand. She asked Peter, "You don't look very happy. What's the matter?" "There was a fierce dragon which caught my neighbor. I want to save her, but I don't think I can defeat it," Peter replied worriedly. The fairy cast a spell and a bag of delicious biscuits appeared. "These biscuits can shrink anything. You give the biscuits to the dragon, then it would shrink and you could save your neighbor," the fairy said. Peter took the biscuits and continued walking.

After a while, Peter arrived at the dragon's tower. Peter climbed to the top of the tower where the dragon stood on. Peter used his sword to attack the dragon, but it was useless. The dragon swallowed it. Peter decided to make the dragon eat the biscuits. It was a real piece of work. He tried and tried but couldn't make the dragon eat the cookies. Finally, the dragon ate the biscuits and shrunk. However, it also shrunk Lucy. Peter didn't know what to do. He had no choice but to shrink himself to find Lucy but the plan didn't work. Peter got caught too! Peter and Lucy were in the same boat. They were both frightened because nobody could see them since they were too small. At that moment, the fairy flew by. She cast another spell and tamed the dragon. The dragon freed Peter and Lucy after the spell. The dragon became friendly and nice.
