

SAVING LUCY

Yip Chin Yu, Fiona (6C)

Once upon a time, Peter and Lucy lived in a small village. Lucy was as beautiful as a flower. Her hair was as soft as silk and her voice was as sweet as honey.

One day, a fierce dragon came to the village. It was as strong as a tiger. Its claws were sharp and its tail was long like a snake.

Suddenly the dragon caught Lucy and flew away. 'Help me!' Lucy cried. Peter was very scared, but he was also brave. 'I must save Lucy!' he said.

On the way, Peter met a fairy. The fairy said, 'Take these magic biscuits. They have special power.'

Peter saw the dragon in the cave. He threw the magic biscuits at it. The dragon became weak and could not fly. Lucy was very happy to see Peter. They returned to the village, and the people were glad.
