2a. Read the following information carefully. Finish the practice.

(adapted from Longman Leap's teaching resources)

comparatives / superlatives

Do you remember how to use comparative and superlative adjectives to compare things?

Set A: $68

Set B: $55

Set C: $34

Set B is cheaper than Set A.

Set C is the cheapest.

We add er / est to cheap.

comparatives / superlatives

Let's look at another example.

Happy
Chocolate

Jolly
Chocolate

Merry
Chocolate

Happy Chocolate is delicious.

Do we just add er and est to delicious?

No!

comparatives / superlatives

Let's look at another example.

Happy
Chocolate

Jolly
Chocolate

Merry
Chocolate

Happy Chocolate is delicious.

Jolly Chocolate is more delicious than Happy Chocolate.

We don't change the word delicious.

Merry Chocolate is the most delicious.

We use the most + long adjective for the superlative form.

Part 1

Part 2

comparatives / superlatives

Let's compare these three restaurants.

2,189 likes

Royal Garden

1,238 likes

STARDUST

4,522 likes

Moon River is more popular than Royal Garden.

Stardust is the most popular.

comparatives / superlatives

We use most / the most with:

- All adjectives that have three or more syllables.

E.g. popular, expensive, comfortable, delicious

- Most adjectives that have two syllables.

E.g. careful, peaceful, pleasant

good

Let's now use good to compare these restaurants.

Dining Place

Pizza World

Wayne's Kitchen

better = comparative form of good

Pizza World is better than Wayne's Kitchen.

Dining Palace is the best.

best = superlative form of good

bad

What about the adjective bad?

Jade Corner

King's Palace

Sky Court

worse = comparative form of bad

King's Palace is worse than Jade Corner.

Sky Court is the worst.

worst = superlative form of bad

good / bad

Jane's Kitchen is better than Sunrise Cafe.

Dee Restaurant is the best.

Star Noodles is worse than King's Place.

Rainbow Cafe is the worst.

Quick Check

1. How do we form the comparative / superlative form of these adjectives?

5. Reading Comprehension

5a. Open your English Book and turn to P. 64, 65. Read the passage.

Reading

Read the story

It was the last day of Leon Week. Let's go out for dinner to celebrate," suggested Jagan. "But I'm so hungry I could eat a horse," said David. Let's find the best all-you-can-eat restaurant on the web!"

Best all-you-can-eat restaurants

Golden Star ★★★★★	Yummy Hut ★★★★★	Tasty House ★★★★★
Price: $1200	Price: $800	Price: $500

1. "I'll go to Yummy Hut! It has the most delicious food," suggested David. "But it's not the most expensive," said Jagan. "While Golden Star is better than Yummy Hut, it's less delicious than Yummy Hut, but it's also less expensive," said Plum. "Go! Let's go there," said David.

2. At the restaurant, a waiter gave them an order form.

3. "What would you like, Mum?" Jagan asked. "I'd like something spicy," replied Plum. "Which would you like, chicken curry or beef curry?" said Jagan. Plum couldn't decide, so she ordered both.

4. David worried again. "Which is better?" he asked. "Spaghetti with meat sauce or macaroni with mushrooms?"

5. "I love them both, Dad," suggested David. "This is an all-you-can-eat restaurant."

6. "The ordering," David said. "I'd also like the green salad and blueberry cheesecake." Jagan and David ordered lots of dishes too.

What's Don't waste food

1. The food came quickly. "There's enough to feed an army!" smiled Jagan.

2. An hour later, there was still a lot of food on the table. "It's so full," sighed Jagan. "It can't eat any more dishes," agreed David. "Our eyes were bigger than our stomachs. Let's ask for the bill," said Plum.

3. When the bill arrived, they were shocked. "We wanted a lot of food," said David. "We won't be so greedy next time," said David.

Quicken Star

Pilchard	1200 x 2
2 chicken	1500 x 2
Extra charge	100 x 10
Total	12000

4. It is a good idea for restaurants to charge more for unfinished food? Why / Why not?

Did you know?

I could eat a horse as the story is an idiom. It has a special meaning. It does not really mean the speaker could eat a horse.

I could eat a horse. I eat like a bird. I have a sweet tooth.

Am very hungry. I don't eat a lot. I like sweet food a lot.

5b. Finish Book P. 66

Post-reading

Read the story again. Give short answers.

- Why did the family go out for dinner?
- Why did David suggest going to an all-you-can-eat restaurant?
- Find a sentence in the story which means 'we ordered more than we could eat'.
- Why did the family have to pay extra for their meal?

Blacken the circle.

7. According to the webpage, _____.

A. Golden Star is more delicious than Yummy Hut.

B. Yummy Hut has the best service.

C. Tasty House is more expensive than Yummy Hut.

D. Golden Star is cheaper than Yummy Hut.

8. Choose the best title for the story.

A. Food for hungry.  B. The best restaurant.

C. A delicious surprise.  D. A meal and a lesson.

Phonics

9. Which sound does the letter 'v' make? Listen and tick [✓]. Then finish the rules.
