

4B Unit 2 Reading

Read the story.

Arthur was on holiday in Hong Kong. He received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.

To : lamarthur@tuttnail.comx
 From : mike99@tuttnail.comx
 Subject : Your visit to HK

Hi Arthur,
 Welcome to Hong Kong! I'm excited about seeing you this Sunday! Let's go for dim sum! There's a nice restaurant in Mong Kok. You can take the MTR there.

Here are the directions: Go out of your hotel and turn right. Walk across the road. Turn right and go straight ahead. The station is on your left. It's next to the post office. Take the MTR to Mong Kok. I'll see you outside Exit E2 at 12 noon.

Mike

On Sunday, Arthur followed the directions and found the station easily. He bought a ticket and after a short journey, he arrived at Mong Kok. Arthur looked at his watch. 'I'm early,' he thought. 'I'll have a look around.' He went out of the station and started exploring.

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

Ten minutes later, the boys finally met. They enjoyed looking at the fish, snakes and turtles in the market. Arthur tried some fish balls and egg waffles. 'This place is cool! I'm glad I got lost,' smiled Arthur. 'Yes, you often find the best things when you're lost,' said Mike.

'I don't think I can eat anymore!' said Arthur.

'Don't worry,' said Mike. 'We can go for dim sum tomorrow instead!'

Have you got lost before? Was it a pleasant or an unpleasant experience? Why?

Open your textbook 4B and turn to P.16 - P.17.

Pre-reading

Today we are going to read a story about a boy who comes to Hong Kong on holiday.

This is Arthur. He is on holiday in Hong Kong.

Arthur

This is Arthur. He is on holiday in Hong Kong.
He has just received an e-mail.

Arthur

To : iamarthur@funmail.comx
From : mike99@funmail.comx
Subject : Your visit to HK

It's from his pen friend Mike who lives in Hong Kong.

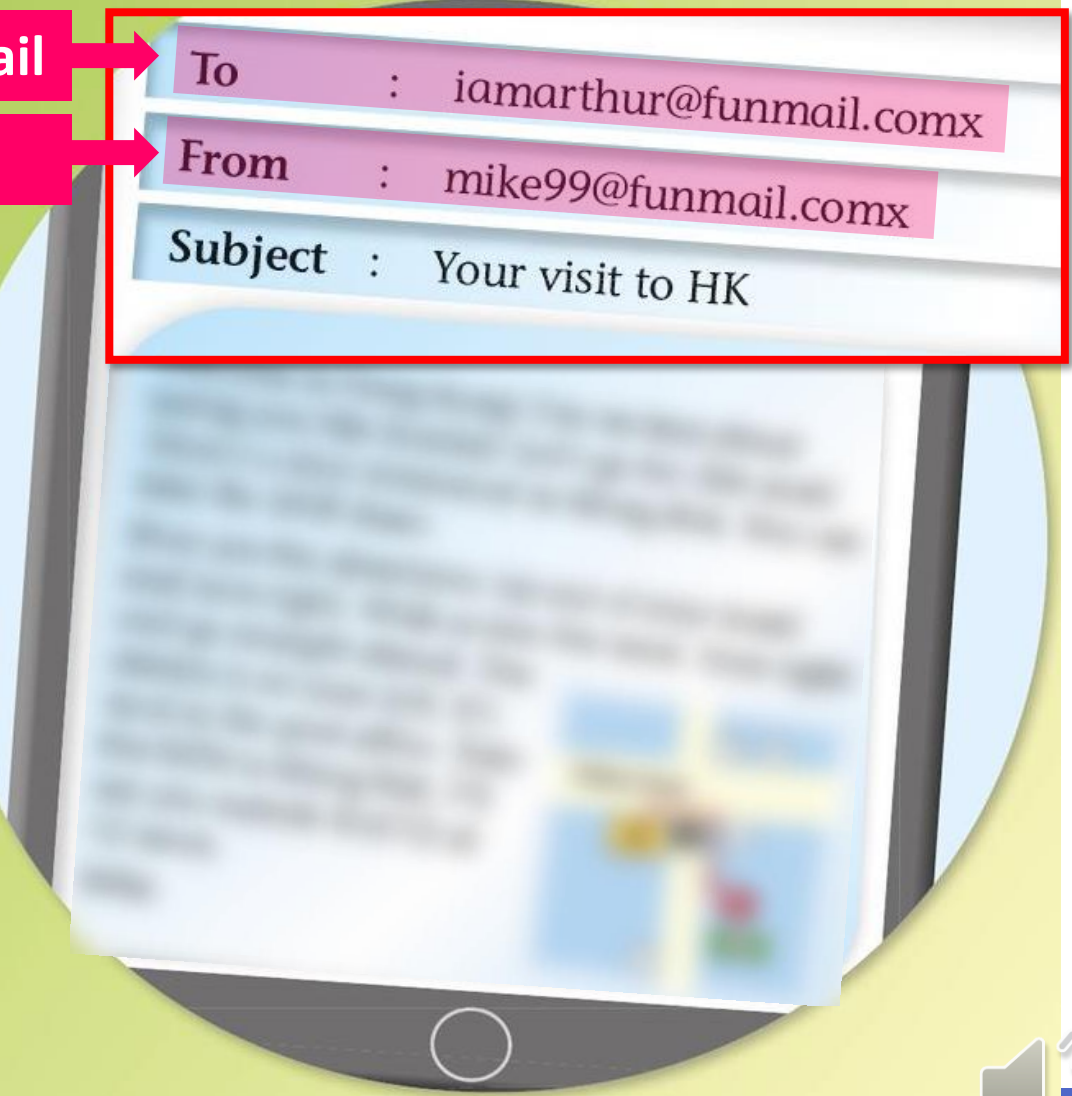

this person receives the e-mail

this person sends the e-mail

To : iamarthur@funmail.comx

From : mike99@funmail.comx

Subject : Your visit to HK

Mike is writing about Arthur's visit to Hong Kong.
He wants to show Arthur around the city.

subject = what the e-mail is about

To : iamarthur@funmail.comx
From : mike99@funmail.comx
Subject : Your visit to HK

Where do you think Mike wants to take Arthur?
Why does he want to take him there?

While Reading

Let's read the story and find out.

First let's read the e-mail to find out about Mike's plans.

Read the story.

Arthur was

Arthur was on holiday in Hong Kong. He received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.

On Sunday
directions are
He bought a journey, he Arthur looked
he thought.
He went out
exploring.

To : iamarthur@funmail.comx
From : mike99@funmail.comx
Subject : Your visit to HK

Hi Arthur,

Welcome to Hong Kong! I'm excited about seeing you this Sunday! Let's go for dim sum! There's a nice restaurant in Mong Kok. You can take the MTR there.

Here are the directions: Go out of your hotel and turn right. Walk across the road. Turn right and go straight ahead. The station is on your left. It's next to the post office. Take the MTR to Mong Kok. I'll see you outside Exit E2 at 12 noon.

Mike

'I'll find you.'
at the fish,
egg waffles.
en find the stead!

a pleasant

or an unpleasant experience? Why?

Where will Mike take Arthur on Sunday?

Hi Arthur,

Welcome to Hong Kong! I'm excited about seeing you this Sunday!

Let's go for dim sum! There's a nice restaurant in Mong Kok. You can take the MTR there.

Here are the directions: Go out of your hotel and turn right. Walk across the road. Turn right and go straight ahead. The station is on your left. It's next to the post office. Take the MTR to Mong Kok. I'll see you outside Exit E2 at 12 noon.

Mike

Mike will take him to a dim sum restaurant in Mong Kok.

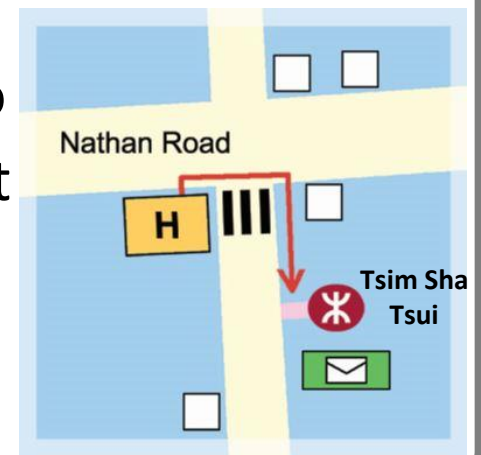

When and where will they meet?

Hi Arthur,

Welcome to Hong Kong! I'm excited about seeing you this Sunday! Let's go for dim sum! There's a nice restaurant in Mong Kok. You can take the MTR there.

Here are the directions: Go out of your hotel and turn right. Walk across the road. Turn right and go straight ahead. The station is on your left. It's next to the post office. Take the MTR to Mong Kok. I'll see you outside Exit E2 at 12 noon.

Mike

They will meet outside Exit E2 of Mong Kok MTR station at 12 p.m.

How will Arthur get to Mong Kok?

Hi Arthur,

Welcome to Hong Kong! I'm excited about seeing you this Sunday! Let's go for dim sum! There's a nice restaurant in Mong Kok. You can take the MTR there.

Here are the directions: Go out of your hotel and turn right. Walk across the road. Turn right and go straight ahead. The station is on your left. It's next to the post office. Take the MTR to Mong Kok. I'll see you outside Exit E2 at 12 noon.

Mike

Arthur will take the MTR.

Where can Arthur find the MTR station near his hotel? Let's take a closer look at the directions.

Hi Arthur,

Welcome to Hong Kong! I'm excited about seeing you this Sunday! Let's go for dim sum! There's a nice restaurant in Mong Kok. You can take the MTR there.

Here are the directions: Go out of your hotel and turn right. Walk across the road. Turn right and go straight ahead. The station is on your left. It's next to the post office. Take the MTR to Mong Kok. I'll see you outside Exit E2 at 12 noon.

Mike

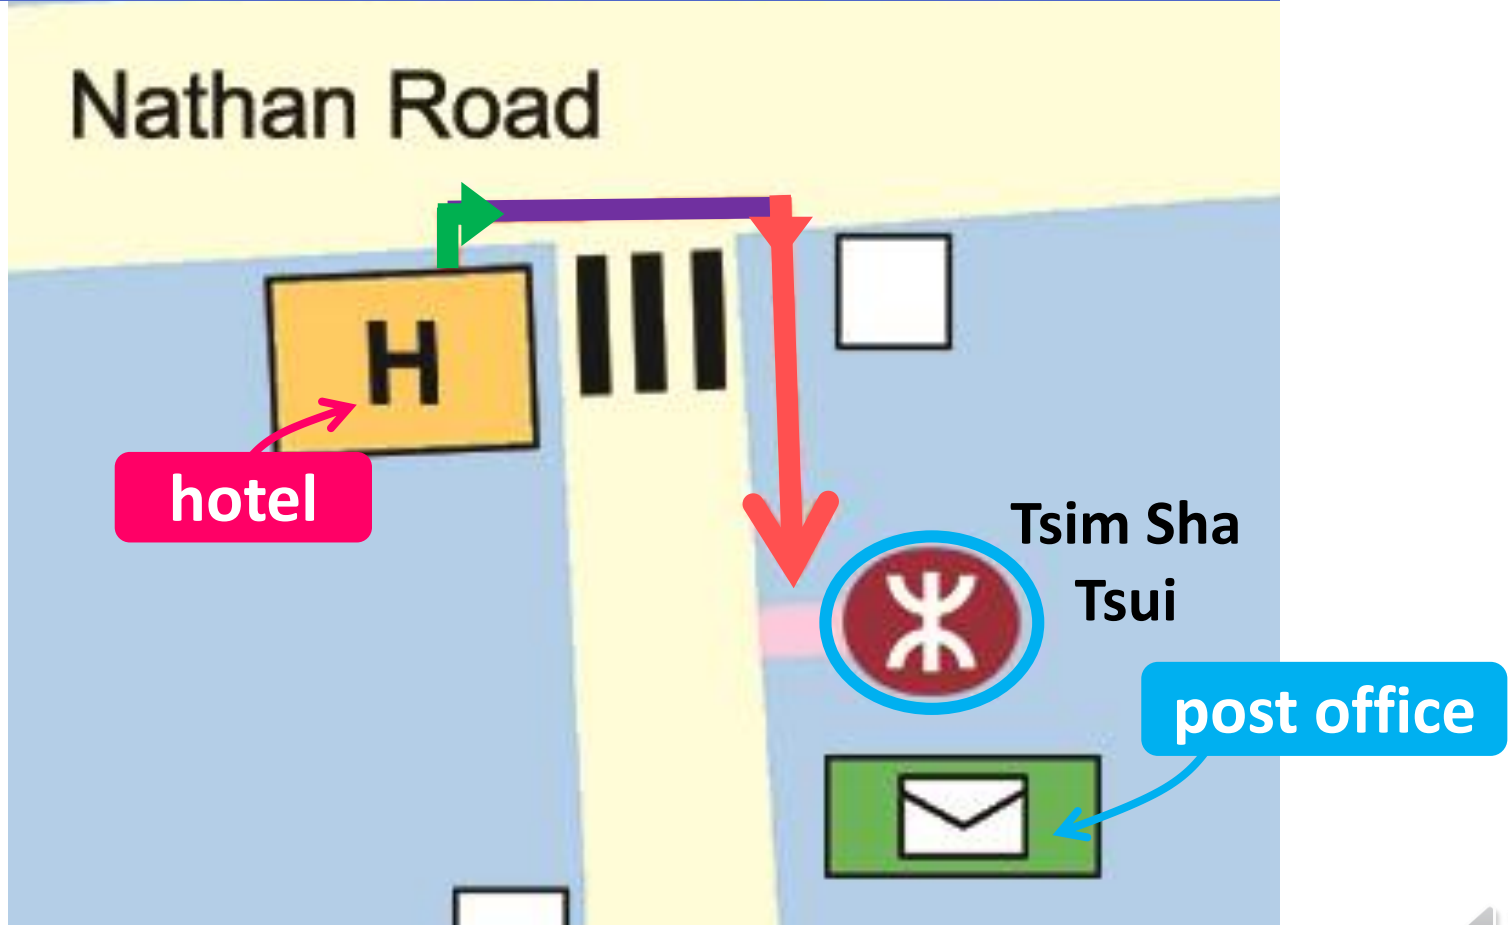

Go out of your hotel and turn right.

Walk across the road.

Turn right and go straight ahead.

The station is on your left. It's next to the post office.

Will Arthur find his way to Mong Kok?

Read the next part of the story to find out.

Read the story.

Arthur was on holiday in Hong Kong. He received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.

On Sunday, Arthur followed the directions and found the station easily. He bought a ticket and after a short journey, he arrived at Mong Kok. Arthur looked at his watch. 'I'm early,' he thought. 'I'll have a look around.' He went out of the station and started exploring.

exploring.

10 Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

Have you got lost before? Was it a pleasant or an unpleasant experience? Why?

Did Arthur find the MTR station near his hotel?

On Sunday, Arthur followed the directions and found the station easily. He bought a ticket and after a short journey, he arrived at Mong Kok. Arthur looked at his watch. 'I'm early,' he thought. 'I'll have a look around.' He went out of the station and started exploring.

Arthur followed Mike's directions and got to MTR station easily.

What did Arthur decide to do after arriving at Mong Kok? What does 'explore' mean?

On Sunday, Arthur followed the directions and found the station easily. He bought a ticket and after a short journey, he arrived at Mong Kok. Arthur looked at his watch. 'I'm early,' he thought. 'I'll have a look around.' He went out of the station and started exploring.

To travel around a place in order to learn about it.

Why did Arthur decide to explore Mong Kok?

On Sunday, Arthur followed the directions and found the station easily. He bought a ticket and after a short journey, he arrived at Mong Kok. Arthur looked at his watch. 'I'm early,' he thought. 'I'll have a look around.' He went out of the station and started exploring.

Because he arrived early and had some free time.

Did Arthur know where he was going? Will he be OK?

Read the next part of the story to find out.

Read the story.

Arthur was on holiday in Hong Kong. He received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.

10 Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

dir
He
jou
Ar
he thought. 'I'll have a look around.'
He went out of the station and started exploring.

Have you got lost before? Was it a pleasant or an unpleasant experience? Why?

Why didn't Arthur return to Mong Kok MTR station?

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

Because he was lost. He couldn't find his way back.

What happened next? Why?

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

Mike called him.

Why did Mike ask Arthur to tell him what he could see around him?

[inferring]

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

Mike wanted to find out where Arthur was.

Where can you find lots of colourful fish in Mong Kok?

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

We can see lots of colourful fish in the Goldfish Market.

That's right! Arthur was in the Goldfish Market. What did Mike do next?

Fifteen minutes later, Arthur decided to return to the station but he couldn't find the way. He was lost! Just then, his phone rang. It was Mike. 'Where are you?' asked Mike.

'I don't know,' replied Arthur worriedly.

'It's OK, just tell me what you can see,' said Mike.

'Hmm ... I can see lots of colourful fish in plastic bags.'

'Oh, you're in the Goldfish Market,' laughed Mike. 'Stay there, I'll find you.'

He went to the market to find Arthur.

So, did Mike find Arthur at the end? What did the boys do together? Read the ending to find out.

Read the story.

Arthur was on holiday in

On Sunday, Arthur followed directions and found the station. He bought a ticket and after his journey, he arrived at Monday. Arthur looked at his watch and he thought, 'I'll have a look at the city.' He went out of the station exploring.

20 Ten minutes later, the boys finally met. They enjoyed looking at the fish, snakes and turtles in the market. Arthur tried some fish balls and egg waffles. 'This place is cool! I'm glad I got lost,' smiled Arthur. 'Yes, you often find the best things when you're lost,' said Mike.

'I don't think I can eat anymore!' said Arthur.

25 'Don't worry,' said Mike. 'We can go for dim sum tomorrow instead!'

Have you got lost before? Was it a pleasant or an unpleasant experience? Why?

By there, I'll find you.'
Looking at the fish,
balls and egg waffles.
You often find the

tomorrow instead!'

Was it a pleasant experience? Why?

What did they do when they met? What food did Arthur try?

Ten minutes later, the boys finally met. They enjoyed looking at the fish, snakes and turtles in the market. Arthur tried some fish balls and egg waffles. 'This place is cool! I'm glad I got lost with Arthur. 'Yes, you often find the best things when you're lost,' said Mike.

'I don't think I can eat anymore!' said Arthur.

'Don't worry,' said Mike. 'We can go for dim sum tomorrow instead.'

They looked at some fish, snakes and turtles in the market. Arthur tried some fish balls and egg waffles.

How did Arthur feel about getting lost? Did Mike agree with him?

Ten minutes later, the boys finally met. They enjoyed looking at the fish, snakes and turtles in the market. Arthur tried some fish balls and egg waffles. 'This place is cool! I'm glad I got lost,' smiled Arthur. 'Yes, you often find the best things when you're lost,' said Mike.

'I don't think I can eat anymore!' said Arthur.

'Don't worry,' said Mike. 'We can go for dim sum tomorrow instead!'

Arthur was glad because he saw interesting things and he tried different food.

So, did they finally have dim sum? Why / Why not?

Ten minutes later, the boys finally met. They enjoyed looking at the fish, snakes and turtles in the market. Arthur tried some fish balls and egg waffles. 'This place is cool! I'm glad I got lost,' smiled Arthur. 'Yes, you often find the best things when you're lost,' said Mike.

'I don't think I can eat anymore!' said Arthur.

'Don't worry,' said Mike. 'We can go for dim sum tomorrow instead!'

They didn't have dim sum because Arthur was full.
They will try dim sum tomorrow.

Post-reading

Now read the story from the beginning to the end. Then sequence the events of the story and choose the best title.

Have you got lost before? How did you feel?

scared

worried

sad

calm

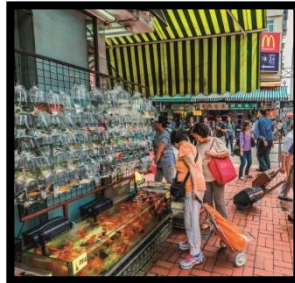

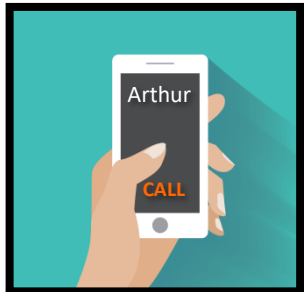

excited

Put the events in the correct order.

Write 1-6.

	Mike called Arthur.
	Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.
	Arthur couldn't find his way back to Mong Kok MTR station.
	Arthur arrived at Mong Kok early so he went exploring alone.
	They walked around Mong Kok and tried some local food.
___	Mike found Arthur in the Goldfish Market.

OK. Let's put it together.

First, ...

1

Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.

Then, ...

1

Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.

2

Arthur arrived at Mong Kok early so he went exploring alone.

After that, ...

- 1 Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.
- 2 Arthur arrived at Mong Kok early so he went exploring alone.
- 3 Arthur couldn't find his way back to Mong Kok MTR station.

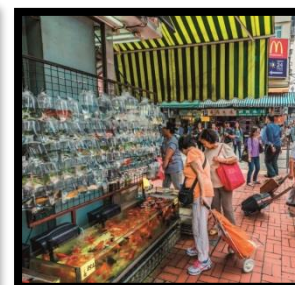

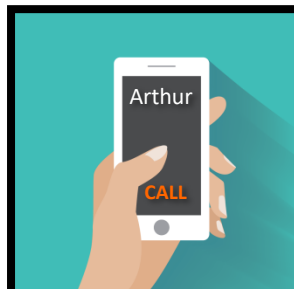

Next, ...

- 1 Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.
- 2 Arthur arrived at Mong Kok early so he went exploring alone.
- 3 Arthur couldn't find his way back to Mong Kok MTR station.
- 4 Mike called Arthur.

Then, ...

- 1 Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.
- 2 Arthur arrived at Mong Kok early so he went exploring alone.
- 3 Arthur couldn't find his way back to Mong Kok MTR station.
- 4 Mike called Arthur.
- 5 Mike found Arthur in the Goldfish Market.

Finally, ...

- 1 Arthur received an e-mail from his pen friend Mike.
- 2 Arthur arrived at Mong Kok early so he went exploring alone.
- 3 Arthur couldn't find his way back to Mong Kok MTR station.
- 4 Mike called Arthur.
- 5 Mike found Arthur in the Goldfish Market.
- 6 They walked around Mong Kok and tried some local food.

Now choose the best title for the story.

A visit to the
Goldfish Market

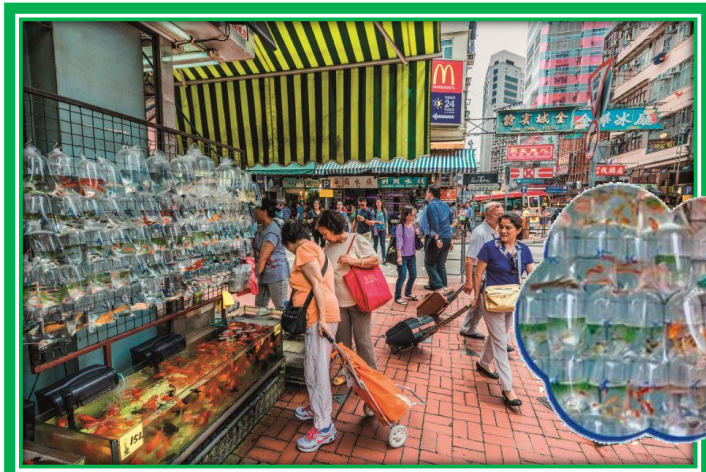

Arthur's holiday

A good pen friend

Fun in getting lost

Is the story about visiting the Goldfish Market?

A visit to the
Goldfish Market

Arthur's holiday

A good pen friend

Fun in getting lost

Is the story about Arthur's holiday in Hong Kong?

A visit to the
Goldfish Market

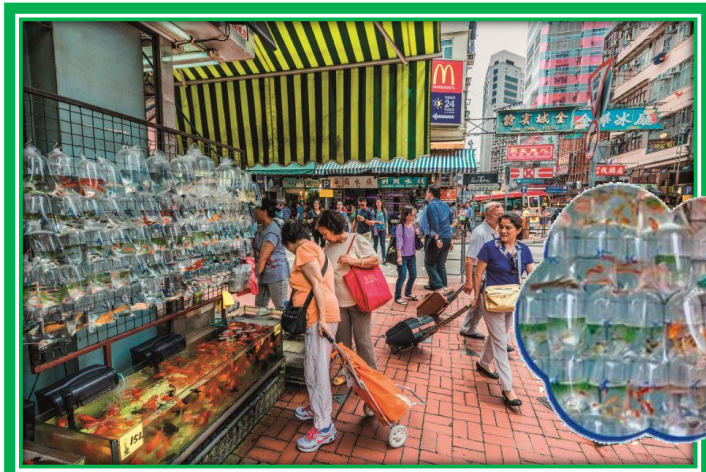

Arthur's holiday

A good pen friend

Fun in getting lost

Is the story about having a good pen friend?

A visit to the
Goldfish Market

Arthur's holiday

A good pen friend

Fun in getting lost

Or is it about the fun in getting lost?

A visit to the
Goldfish Market

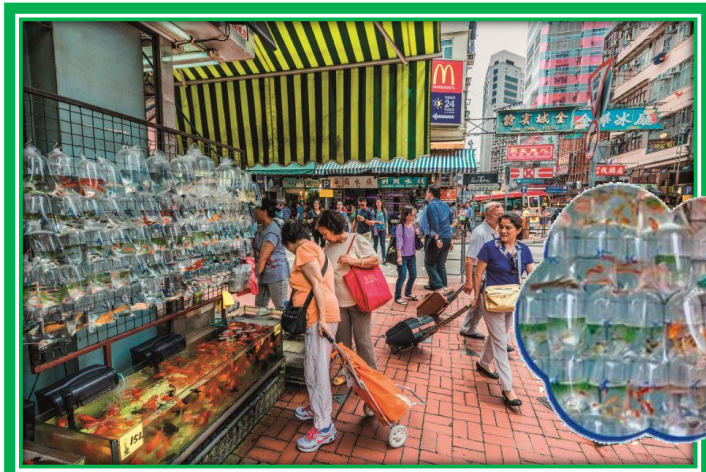

A good pen friend

Arthur's holiday

Fun in getting lost

Fun in getting lost

A visit to the Goldfish Market

Arthur's holiday

A good pen friend

Fun in getting lost

Please go to school website and read P.4 Stage 8 (U2 2nd Term) 5 - Reading. Finish the tasks.

